The location quotient for Champaign (2.3) was 0.3 points higher than the metropolitan area, with Ford County (2.2), and Piatt County (1.7) being lower. Housing instability for Illinois impacted 850,000 residents which represented 6.7 percent of the population in 2022.

Good Writing in Planning

- Persuasive stories are dependent upon their details
- We respond to what characters do
- The more actions are summarized, the more we see the story rather than discrete pieces of information
